OTHILIA

LOBBY BAR

Welcome to our hidden pearl in the centre of Oslo.

We chose our name after Othilia Lasson Krohg – Nicknamed “Oda”. She was a lively character amongst the bohemian crowd of the late 1800’s and she represented the bohemian women who dared to break taboos.

Grand Café was only for men at that time,
but that did not deter her so she attended debates,
smoked cigarettes, and enjoyed her cocktails,
just as much as we would like you
to enjoy your time here with us.

FROM CANVAS TO GLASS

Step into a creative world where flavors become delightful masterpieces. Our cocktail menu is inspired by art history, spanning eras that shaped visual landscapes.

Grand Hotel Oslo has been since its opening a hub for some of the most famous Norwegian and International artists, such as Edvard Munch, Per Krohg, Gustav Vigeland, and until these days you can find around the building some of their artworks, but also some modern & contemporary artists, such as Tracey Emin and Vanessa Baird, therefore our cocktails blend artistry and mixology, showcased through decades of evolution.

All signature cocktails are served from 17:00.
